New HIV Diagnoses in Maryland

In 2019, there were 14 reported HIV diagnoses among gender expansive people.

- Of the 931 reported HIV diagnoses in 2019, 69.6% were male, 28.9% were female, and 1.5% were transfeminine.
- 85.7% of newly diagnosed transfeminine people were linked to care within 1 month of receiving a diagnosis of HIV.
- Of the 480 reported AIDS diagnoses in 2019, 308 (64.2%) were male, 165 (34.4%) were female, and 7 (1.5%) were transfeminine.

Characteristics of Gender Diverse People Living with HIV in Maryland

At the end of 2019, there were 334 gender expansive people living with diagnosed HIV.

- Of the 31,630 total living HIV diagnoses in 2019, 313 were transgender women, 20 were transgender men, and 1 was another gender identity.
- Of the 334 gender diverse people living with diagnosed HIV, 42.5% were adults ages 30-39 years old, 24.0% were those ages 20-29, and 13.8% were those ages 40-49.

- Among gender expansive individuals living with diagnosed HIV, sexual contact was the most common exposure (81.2%), followed by sexual contact and IDU (7.9%), and IDU (5.0%).
- 81.1% of the gender expansive HIV people living with diagnosed HIV in Maryland had a viral load test result reported in 2019. Of those 271 people with a test result, 79.3% had a suppressed viral load.